What: Eden Prairie Reads events

When: 6 to 8 p.m. Oct. 23

Where: St. Andrew Lutheran Church, 13600 Technology Drive

This year's Eden Prairie Reads event will include will include book discussion related to Tim O'Brien's "The Things They Carried."

Along with that, a panel of Vietnam veterans will share their stories.

According to Eden Prairie Reads committee member Karen Casey, panel members include:

Lou Ellingson, who served in the Navy on a swift boat, Bob Grant, who served in the Marines, Tim Kasprovicz , who served in army and Wes Dunsmore, who was in the Marines infantry.

There's going to be book discussions and those panelists will be part of it, noted Casey.

Then, once that is done, participants will hear panel discussion, "They're going to tell their own personal story."

In its fourth year, Eden Prairie Reads will be not just be involving one book. Casey noted that's they're already starting to plan the next event will coincide with "I Love To Read Month," in February.
